

Ride with legends in the heart of the Bieszczady - ORLEN Lang Team Race, 17 May

Imagine pedalling through one of Poland's most breathtaking mountain landscapes, side by side with cycling legends - all as part of a vibrant celebration of sport, nature and tradition.

This dream will come true on 17 May when the ORLEN Lang Team Race returns with a truly unique edition in the spectacular setting of Hotel Arłamów, nestled in the Bieszczady Mountains. This experience is suitable for both passionate amateur cyclists and adventurers who want to ride through history. This is a day not to be missed.

Participants will not only experience the rolling forests and quiet roads of Podkarpacie, but they'll also climb legendary routes such as Gruszowa and Kalwaria Pałacowska, made famous by the Tour de Pologne.

But what will make this edition unforgettable are the names of the cycling celebrities who will be joining and accompanying the group. None other than Czesław Lang - Olympic silver medallist and one of Poland's cycling heroes - will be celebrating his 70th birthday with you. He will be joined by the likes of Dariusz Baranowski, Lechosław Michalak, Henryk Charucki, Jan Faltyn and Krzysztof Sujka, making this event a living museum of cycling excellence.

"This will be a very special edition of the ORLEN Lang Team Race. I'll be celebrating my 70th birthday on the day of the race and I want to surprise the participants by riding with them. We've invited great champions such as Darek Baranowski, Krzysztof Sujka, Lechosław Michalak, Jan Faltyn, Henryk Charucki and many others. We'll start and finish at the Arłamów Hotel, and on the way we'll tackle climbs such as Gruszowa and Kalwaria Pałacowska. It's going to be a lot of fun," says Czesław Lang, General Director of the Lang Team.

The ORLEN Lang Team Race is more than just a race - it's a gathering of generations, a celebration of cycling culture and a rare opportunity to explore Poland's wild south-east on two wheels.

And while the amateurs take to the hills, the ORLEN Nations Grand Prix will be taking place nearby, showcasing the world's best under-23 cyclists and adding even more inspiration to the day.
