03-09.08.2026

83rd Tour de Pologne under the slogan "North-South"

The upcoming 83rd edition of the Tour de Pologne UCI WorldTour promises once again to be an exceptional spectacle. The race will be held under the slogan "North-South," connecting coastal routes with mountain peaks. The world's best cyclists will traverse Poland from top to bottom, competing for a valuable victory in the most important cycling event in this part of Europe.

With four months still to go until the start of the 83rd Tour de Pologne UCI WorldTour, preparations for the race are already in full swing. The the competition of top riders will return to the north of Poland. On August 3rd, the race will set off from Gdynia, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary. A day earlier, the official team presentation will take place on the famous ship ORP "Błyskawica."

The slogan and theme for this year's edition will be "North-South." From the Baltic Sea, the world's best cyclists will travel to mountainous regions, providing a unique opportunity to showcase the full range of Poland's scenic beauty. Millions of fans gathered along the route and in front of their televisions will witness high-level competition played out in charming corners of Poland.

Thanks to the cooperation with Telewizja Polska (TVP), Eurosport, and the HBO Max streaming platform, coverage of the 83rd Tour de Pologne will once again reach audiences in 65 countries worldwide. Organized by Lang Team, the event has for years served as a perfect showcase for Poland, combining sporting excitement with tourism promotion.

The race will invariably remain part of the prestigious UCI WorldTour, guaranteeing a start list rich with the world's best teams and top riders. In the past, the likes of Jonas Vingegaard and Remco Evenepoel have triumphed in Poland, and last year, the American Brandon McNulty proved to be the best in the ORLEN General Classification.

The formula of racing from the north to the south of Poland ensures that the stage routes will be diverse. Fans will witness both thrilling bunch finishes and battles among the favorites on mountainous and hilly roads. The 83rd Tour de Pologne UCI WorldTour will take place from August 3rd to 9th, 2026.
